

The DePaul University College Of Education Presents
The Winter Education Issues Forum:

Trauma Informed Teaching and Counseling

Tuesday, February 21, 2017

5:30 to 7:30 PM

DePaul University

Student Center Room 314

2250 North Sheffield Ave.

Chicago, IL 60614

Join us for a discussion with:

- Dr. Tara Gill, Clinical Psychologist, Lurie Children's Hospital, Center for Childhood Resilience
- Michael Moriarty, NBCT, Professional Development Facilitator, Quest Center, Chicago Teachers Union Foundation
- James Smith, Counselor/Case Manager, John Cook Elementary School, CPS

The panel will discuss:

- Understanding the impact of chronic trauma on students
- Building systems of support in a school
- Developing classroom interventions and clinical services
- Addressing prevention and advocacy
- Self-care for teachers and counselors

2 CPDUs available for teachers

Free and open to the public

Registration is required. Register online at <http://tinyurl.com/coeforumsvp>

For more information, contact Diane Horwitz at dhorwit1@depaul.edu